

Annual Holston Pony Club fun show, to be held Saturday, October 8th, at Lisa Baker's Journey's End Farm.

Hey Everyone--

This is a "Save The Date" warning for the Annual Holston Pony Club fun show, to be held Saturday, October 8th, at Lisa Baker's Journey's End Farm.

We're planning a fabulous schedule of classes that include hunter from poles on the ground to 2'6", trail, barrels and bending poles from beginner to advanced, a driving class, some in-hand classes, more games, and, of course, the ever-popular costume class (helmets required if mounted--but go ahead, go crazy! You can really embarrass your horse with this one. Gully's never gotten over the time I dressed as Ham and made him go as Eggs.).

We will have concessions, so plan to come for the whole day, and enjoy the show!
